

Position Title: Social Emotional Wellbeing (SEWB) Women's Health Officer

Location: Gurriny Yealamucka Health Services- Yarrabah

Employment Status: Permanent Fulltime

Salary: To Be Advised – Based on Qualifications and Experience

Gurriny Yealamucka Health Service is seeking an enthusiastic, energetic and motivated Women's SEWB Health Officer to join our dynamic and supportive multidisciplinary SEWB team.

You will be required to coordinate a range of social services and initiatives in Yarrabah by reviewing, formalising and progressing community-based activities, which supports and promotes the social and emotional well-being of women of 18+.

To be successful in this role you will have:

- Cert IV minimum qualifications in Mental health
- The Knowledge and ability to deliver culturally appropriate high-quality SEWB programs
- Experience in SEWB/mental health
- Demonstrated well developed oral, written (electronic and hard-copy) communication and interpersonal skills
- Strong interpersonal, communication and organisational skills
- The ability to work within a multidisciplinary team.
- Valid open Driver's license
- Working with Children suitability card

The following attributes are desirable:

- 3 years + experience working with families / carers
- An understanding and knowledge of the Social emotional well-being issues faced within the Yarrabah Community
- Current first aid certificate or ability to obtain within four weeks of commencement of employment in the family unit, and build their capacity to participate in other community initiatives which promote community-wide health and well-being.

For application kits or information on how to apply please contact:

GHYSAC - Human Resources Manager - Susanne Dale

Ph.: 07 422 64142 or Email: susanne.dale@gyhsac.org.au

APPLICATIONS CLOSE MONDAY 16.30pm the 23rd day of January 2017

NO LATE APPLICATIONS WILL BE ACCEPTED